THREE BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT

BRANCH

Congresspresidentsupreme courtHouse of representativessenaterecommends new lawssupreme courtperforms ceremonial duties, directstell what the law meanto make the lawsFeingoldKlugKohl

The Founding Fathers did not want all the powers given to the government to be controlled by one man, or even just a few men. They feared if a small group was given too much power, the United States would once again be ruled by a tyrannical government like it had been under England. To avoid such a situation they divided the new government into three branches: the executive, the legislative and the judicial. The executive branch is headed by the President of the United States who carries out federal laws and recommends new ones, directs national defense and foreign policy and performs ceremonial duties. The legislative branch is headed by Congress which consists of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Their main task is to make the laws. The judicial branch is headed by the Supreme Court. This branch interprets the laws, decides cases in which federal laws apply and settles troubles between states. The Constitution built in a "check and balance" system so that no one branch could become too powerful. Each branch is controlled by the other two in several ways. The President may veto a law passed by Congress, but Congress may override his veto with a two-thirds vote. The Senate must approve any treaty the President makes and approve many of the appointments he makes. Any money the President needs for national defense must come from the Congress. The Supreme Court may check the Congress or the President by declaring a law unconstitutional. And, the Court is appointed by the other two and may be impeached by Congress.

Dear Parents and Friends:

Just a few reminders:

- Calendar update: Monday's Board meeting has been postponed until Thursday, May 12.
- Goal-feedback conferences: School will be closed on Friday, May 20, for goal-feedback conferences designed for students, parents, and teachers to evaluate the year's progress together. Sign-up sheets—with 15 minutes slots—will be posted near classroom doors beginning next Monday.
- Thursday's forum: Remember that we have scheduled an informational forum for parents next Wednesday, May 11, at 7 p.m. in the gym to answer any questions about the composition of next year's classes for 6 to 9-year-olds. Next year the primary classes will again contain 5 to 7-year-olds, but the "intermediate" classes, Rooms 201 and 203, will contain children of first, second, and third grade age. These groupings will help us accommodate the unbalanced numbers of 6 and 7-year-olds as well as balance enrollment for the future. Although actual numbers will not be "final" until we've done placements, I anticipate that about half the children in Rooms 201 and 203 will be of third grade age with the other half split pretty evenly between children of first and second grade age. The teachers and I look forward to answering questions before classroom placements are made, so please plan to attend if you have questions or concerns.
- Fun Day: Fun Day 1994 is planned for Tuesday, May 31 (raindate June 1). This fantastic day of outdoor games and special activities such as a water slide, cooperative games, bubbles, appliance box construction, and tie dying is organized and staffed by parents who can spend part or all of the day at Wingra. Those who earlier indicated an interest in organizing or helping will be contacted by volunteers from Wingra Families. However, any others who want to help organize the event, suggest projects, or help in some other way, should call Ann Rosenbloom, 273-2975, as soon as possible. This special end-of-the-year all-school event is always incredibly wonderful for children and for those parents who can help.
- Early arrival guidelines: Remember that school at Wingra begins at 8:30 a.m. and that we really don't have the staff or facilities to supervise children before then. To be considerate of others' in the building and for safety reasons, we ask children [and parents] who arrive early to wait on the back playground, rather than in the building or parking lot. Please provide a good example for your own and others' children by remaining outside until the 8:30 bell is rung. Remember that the AFTER SCHOOL Day Care Association (233-9782) provides a before-school program in the Dudgeon Commons from 7:30-8:30 a.m. for children who regularly need early morning care.
- Dudgeon Center: Remember that the Dudgeon Center needs a new bookkeeper. If you know of someone with the accredited bookkeeping skills who might want to work 6-10 hours a week for $10 an hour, please contact DCCP Building Director Ralph Henes, 238--4321.
- Child care needed: Catherine Coberly, mother of Ariel Coberly-Horral in Room 200, needs help during the summer and next fall for her daughters, 10 year-old Ariel and 4-year-old Tara. They need (1) transportation from the Oregon area to the Wingra area next fall, along with child care beginning about 7 a.m. in their home so that Catherine can leave for work by 7:15 a.m. and (2) summer care in their home for approximately 15 hours a week, including one evening. Also possibly in the fall, they may need someone for child care and light housework for 2 evenings each week. Their family lives on a farmette, 15 minutes from Wingra, 4 miles north of Oregon. Please call Catherine, 222-3562, with any leads. Although they'd prefer working with one person, they are flexible.
- Available for summer child care: Melissa Fredrick, 256-2551, one of our college student lunch supervisors, is looking for summer work with children. . . .
- Weekend plans: Looking for something terrific to do this weekend besides attending the Farmers' Market or Joan Ziegler's garden open house? Kanopy Dance is presenting the first of its two spring concerts this Saturday, May 7, from 2-4 p.m. at the Barrymore Theatre. Dancers include current and former Wingra students Tara Converse, Linnie Nordheim, Katy Schramm, Julia Skloot, Jennifer Stackhouse, Heidi Wilson, and Lydia Wilson. Kanopy performances always combine outstanding modern dancing with wonderful dancer-created choreography. Tickets are available at the door.

Wingra School

Friday, October 2, 1992

Dear Parents and Friends:

The combination of beautiful weather, successful outings, fall color, good company, some child and staff illness, and lots of exciting work has made this a mostly fine but very tiring week. Both parents and staff members have been particularly frazzled with project work—thanks to all who've been laboring so hard on school projects—grant applications, the Supersale, the Monroe Street Shopping Night, the cookbook, Wingra Families activities, massive mailings, lots of meetings, numerous phone calls, and endless paperwork ... all while also taking very good care of kids! [Thank you also to Room 203's Mandy Bowman and Sarah Scholin, stampers extraordinaire, who helped me get out Wednesday morning's mailing!]

Some other news and reminders:

- No school on Monday, October 5th!
- The nicest thing about differing school calendars is that former students want to come back to visit Wingra. On Wednesday, our 8th graders had the opportunity to discuss "transitioning" to ninth grade with a number of Wingra alumni, now first and second year high school students. Thanks to Lina Dahlberg, Michael Dartt, Carrie Jones, Josh Kay, Adam Wiesenfarth, Annie Wilson, and Sonja Wilson for sharing their stories and insights.
- We are happy to welcome a number of new faces to Wingra: practicum students Debra Mason and Noriko Okada from Edgewood College, Karyn Bartig, Robin Larmer, Meaghan Madden, and Janet Reed from the University of Wisconsin, and Susan Kambrich, a new substitute teacher.
- Thank you to all those families who sent in tennis and badminton equipment and to Marci and Neal Katz for their recent donation of a computer and software. We greatly appreciate parents' gifts of materials and equipment and find that many diverse items have direct classroom uses. Thank you for thinking of us! [On this note, if you have Supersale donations which you think might be handy for school use, we appreciate your calling these to our attention. Teachers try to peruse sale items but sometimes miss special finds. Thanks!]
- Back from Sotavento's tour of Puerto Rico, Anne Fraioli does plan to begin tennis and badminton next week. Children are asked to bring available rackets on their gym days; we could still use more!
- This week's packet has lots of enclosures—for both school and community events. The oversized book list contains some of the titles of new books which will be available for sale on the day of the Supersale. Last year parents suggested that a list of available titles be distributed prior to the sale so they could solicit child opinions ahead of time. Some additional new books will be available as well. Like last year, new books will be sold outside on the front lawn; used books inside the building. Remember that the list of books is for your convenience only; neither it nor money should be sent back to school.
- Wingra parent Jim Harrison has offered us an ongoing supply of triwall, a strong and fairly light building material, which would be wonderful to have for school projects. Our problem is lack of storage space; the sheets may be as large as 4 by 10 or 12 feet. Is there anyone with spare garage or basement space who might store a pile of the accumulated triwall for us until we use it? Please let me know.
- There will be a planning meeting for parents who committed to help with the Rosenshontz concert on Wednesday, October 14, at 7 p.m. in the Commons. Come for an evening of planning and good listening!
- Wingra Families' co-chair Kathy Converse reports: "Several Wingra families and friends enjoyed a great fall weekend playing and camping at New Glarus Woods State Park on the weekend of September 19-20. Fun activities included hiking, mountain biking, biking on the Sugar River Trail, canoeing the Sugar River, catching (and eating) fish from the Sugar River, running around—jumping—yelling—rolling games, great shared food, harmonica music, and s'mores by the camp fire. Thanks to all who came for the day or endured the frosty cold mornings.... although those hot blueberry pancakes for breakfast sure helped!"

Have a great weekend!

SEMI-SYNONYMS ★★

BY FRANCIS HEANEY

It's been a rough, difficult day over at the thesaurus company, where they've just discovered that their typist has made mistakes in all the entries. Fortunately, each entry so far has only two words (since the researchers have just begun their work), and each word has only one incorrect letter. For example, the pair of synonyms CHAIR and SEAT were typed as CHOIR and SLAT. Can you help out and determine what these pairs of words were before the careless typist got to them?

Almost every song you read begins with two numbers, one on top of the other. The top number tells you how many beats there are in a measure, the lower number tells you which note gets one beat. These notes are called the time signature.

Dear Parents and Friends:

- Thank you, thank you, thank you! Many thanks to Steve Ziegler for his donation of some fifty prairie plants for our savannah and also for over-seeing this afternoon's planting during "Friday choice." Thanks also to those who were able to assist with some head-checking this week: Kim Cotant, Bridget Doran, Holly Jellinek, Jo Schoell, Betty Scholin, and Lyn Ungrodt.
- Head checks on October 19, 20, and 21: We will be rechecking everyone in the school next week on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, October 19—21. If you are able to help on one of these days, please give Jo a call on Monday. Rather than setting up staggered arrivals, we'll work in classrooms during school time. In the meantime, please continue checking your children's heads periodically over the weekend and do let us know if you discover lice or nits. Spot checks this week suggest that we've greatly reduced but not totally eliminated the problem. Head lice are currently prevalent in almost all city schools, so reinfestation is possible as Wingra students interact with others at out-of-school events, sports, lessons, etc. Please help by periodic checking, prompt treatment, and systematic reporting. Head-checking is quickest and most efficient when children's hair is clean, relatively dandruff-free, and combed or brushed. Thanks to Diane Thaler, samples of dandruff shampoo are available to Wingra families in the office.
- Immunization records: If JoAnn has called you about updating your child's immunization records, be sure we have the necessary information by Friday, October 22. After that date, we are required to report non-complying families to the district attorney. Remember that the state requires a second measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) immunization for students of every grade level except fourth and fifth.
- Parent conferences: Be sure to sign up for a parent teacher conference on either October 28th or 29th. Sign-up sheets are posted near each classroom door. Conferences generally last 20-25 minutes. To enhance communication, all parenting adults of a given child are asked to attend the same conference. As Wingra teachers prepare extensive written evaluations for each child, it is a good idea to come a bit early to read this report. Rather than scheduling back-to-back times, families with more than one child are encouraged to schedule a break between their conferences. This allows time for report reading and provides a cushion in case conferences are running late.
- School pictures: School pictures have been rescheduled for the afternoon of Wednesday, November 3. [If your primary class child usually leaves at 12:15, please talk with her/his teacher about staying through picture taking.] Wingra uses the prepayment plan in order to reduce paper and volunteer work and to lower the cost of the photographs. If you do not like the pictures, retakes or refunds are available. If you did not turn in a picture envelope previously, do so by next Friday, October 22. Because of the change in date, a new sign-up schedule for family pictures has been posted. Remember that we need twenty participating families and that these also must be prepaid. Envelopes for family pictures are posted on the bulletin board and are due in Jo's office next Friday, October 22.
- Supersale: As the enclosed flyer indicates, we hope to reschedule the Supersale for Saturday, November 13. Please complete and return the tear-off portion to Jo's office by Monday, so we know if we have sufficient personnel for this date.
- Winter readiness: Despite this week's mostly beautiful weather, we'll soon be facing winter... Please remember (1) to provide appropriately warm clothing—including hand and ear-coverings as needed; (2) to time morning arrivals after 8:30 a.m.; (3) to mark all removable clothing but especially jackets, coats, boots, etc. with names.
- Families looking for outstanding regional entertainment won't want to miss Children Theatre of Madison's The Girl of Limberlost which opens tonight at the Isthmus theatre and runs through October 31. Recommended highly by our students who saw a preview school performance yesterday, the play includes a very fine performance by Room 202's Krista Williams!

First use scotch tape around the circumference of your Petri dish to secure the cover. Then examine and describe some of the bacterial (or fungal) colonies in your culture. We will send these cultures to the lab where Tara's mom works; they will recognize and identify some of the more common colonies for us.

From House to House

In this maze you may travel one box at a time—up, down, left, or right, but not diagonally. Here's the catch: You may only move between boxes if the words in those boxes can be joined together, in order, to form a compound word. For example, you could move from a box with the word PAPER to a neighboring box with the word WEIGHT, since PAPERWEIGHT is a word. (You could not, however, move from WEIGHT to PAPER, since WEIGHTPAPER is not a word.)

Using these rules, can you find your way from the HOUSE in the upper left to the HOUSE in the lower right?

Answer, page 163

LIFT	WEIGHT	GROUND	WATER	PARK	BRIDGE	SPRING	PIPE

DISCUSSION PREPARATION:

Please think about the following questions and be ready to talk about them at group.

1. On page 101, Lincoln is in his science class. What questions does he have about science? What are three questions that you have about science?
2. On page 103, Lincoln is torn between what he should do -- leave or play ball? How might he have been feeling? Describe a situation like that when you have felt torn between two choices.
3. On page 127, the coach tells Lincoln not to talk to them because they are the other team. What do you think about this? Is it good advice?
4. How do Lincoln's relationships change over the course of the book? With Roy? With Tony? With Monica? With his coach?
5. Was the ending satisfying to you? If you were to add another chapter or two, what would you include?
6. What other questions do you have for discussion?
7. What ideas do you have for how we can present this book to the other book groups? What prejudice can we tell them about?

CREATIVE WORK:

Create an illustration that shows how Lincoln might have been feeling at the basketball game. Include as much detail as you can in your drawing.

GROUP SEQUENCE:

Each member of the group should write down two events that happened in the book. We will collect these slips of paper and put them into a container. Each member will draw out two slips that were written by someone else. The group will then work together to place all the events in their logical sequence according to the story. Doubles may be placed together.

Reducing Seclusion Timeout and Restraint Procedures With At-Risk Youth

Joseph B. Ryan, Reece Peterson, George Tetreault, and Emily Vander Hagen

Abstract: The purpose of this pilot study was to review the effects of professional staff training in crisis management and de-escalation techniques on the use of seclusion timeout and restraint procedures with at-risk students in a K-12 special day school. An exploratory pre-post study was conducted over a two-year period, comparing the use of these behavior management interventions when all staff members were provided crisis intervention training. In addition, a brief survey was administered to all staff members concerning their training in and use of behavioral interventions. Results indicated professional staff training was effective in reducing (a) seclusion timeout procedures by more than one-third (39.4%) and (b) physical restraints (17.6%). This study also found staff members were not initiating seclusion timeout procedures primarily for the reasons they were trained (e.g., physical aggression) but rather for nonviolent behaviors such as leaving an assigned area and disrupting the classroom environment.

Seclusion timeouts and physical restraint are two of the most restrictive behavioral interventions schools rely on to manage the inappropriate and aggressive behavior frequently displayed by at-risk youth. Recently, however, public awareness has been raised regarding the inherent dangers associated with the use of these aversive procedures. An investigative series in the Hartford Courant, a Connecticut newspaper, reported there were 142 restraint-related deaths across the United States over a 10-year period (Weiss, 1998). Similar findings regarding the hazards of restraint and seclusion have been issued by the Government Accounting Office (USGAO, 1999) and the Child Welfare League of America (CWLA, 2002).

Timeout Procedures Used in Schools

Timeout is a behavior management procedure that has long been used in the field of education to address a broad range of maladaptive behaviors across educational placement settings (Costenbader & Reading-Brown, 1995). It is actually a form of punishment implemented to reduce inappropriate behaviors by denying a student access to any type of reinforcement (Alberto & Troutman, 1999; Ryan, Sanders, Katsiyannis & Yell, In Press). There are three variants of this procedure, differing in respect to the degree they separate students from their peers and academic instruction. Timeout procedures ranging from the least to most restrictive interventions include (a) inclusion, (b) exclusion, and (c) seclusion. Inclusion (e.g., contingent observation, timeout ribbon), the least aversive of the three procedures, entails placing the student in a classroom area in which the student can observe the class but denies the him/her the opportunity to participate in activities and receive reinforcement for a given period of time (Yell, 1990). Exclusion (e.g., think time), the second and most frequently used timeout procedure (Costenbader & Reading-Brown, 1995; Gast & Nelson, 1977), denies the student the opportunity to either observe or participate in any classroom activities. The third and most restrictive form of timeout, seclusion (e.g., isolation room, cool down room), removes students from the classroom environment, placing them in an involuntary confinement in a room or area where they are physically prevented from leaving (Busch & Shore, 2000).

Restraint Procedures Used in Schools

There are two common forms of restraints used in schools today: (a) mechanical, and (b) ambulatory. Mechanical restraint entails the use of any device or object (e.g., tape, tie downs, calming blanket, body carrier) to limit an individual's body movement to prevent or manage out-of-control behavior. The second and more common form of physical restraint is often referred to as ambulatory restraint, manual restraint, or "therapeutic holding" (American Academy of Pediatrics Committee on Pediatric Emergency Medicine, 1997). This type of restraint involves one or more people using their bodies to restrict another's body movement as a means of reconstituting behavioral control, and establishing and maintaining safety for the out-of-control student, other students, and staff (American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, 2000).

The use of physical restraint in schools, discussed since the 1950s, was included in a list of "techniques for the antiseptic manipulation of surface behavior" by Redl and Wineman (1952)

Sat Jan 2, 1926

WHITING, IND., Jan. 2.—Tragedy crept into the first day of 1926 at about yesterday afternoon for one Whiting man and a young lady from Indiana Harbor yesterday afternoon when they were swept to death in the path of a locomotive on Fifth avenue on the E. V. & E. railroad crossing.

The man was Walter Lippincott, aged 22, of 640, 1120th street, Whiting, and the girl, Anna Bezanko, aged 21, employed at the home of Mrs. Barowski, 3515 Fir street, Indiana Harbor.

The two were riding on Fifth avenue in Gary on Lippincott's Moon roadster at about 2 o'clock. The roadster was draped with curtains which probably obstructed Lippincott's view, and as they passed the railroad tracks an engine, said to be traveling at the rate of about thirty miles an hour, caught the roadster squarely in the center and carried it down the track for a length of about 500 feet.

The body of the roadster was knocked completely from the chassis; the occupants of the car were picked up on the pavement. The girl was killed instantly and Lippincott died on the way to the hospital from a fractured skull.

It is reported that the crossing was not protected in any way by a watchman nor gates; that the only warning signal at the tracks is a stop sign by the side of the road.

The coroner's inquest will be held this afternoon to determine exactly how the occupants of the doomed roadster went to their death, and who was the cause of the New Year's tragedy.

Lippincott is a married man and has a daughter three years of age, but how Mrs. Bezanko came to be in the Moon automobile at the time of the accident with him remains a mystery.

It was learned this morning that Lippincott had left his home at 640, 1120th street yesterday afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock and told his wife and mother, Mrs. Elsie Franklin, that he would return within twenty minutes.

Lippincott is employed at the Standard Oil Company as an electrician and was to have gone to

It was learned this morning that Lippincott had left his home at 640, 1120th street yesterday afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock and told his wife and mother, Mrs. Elsie Franklin, that he would return within twenty minutes.

Lippincott is employed at the Standard Oil Company as an electrician and was to have gone to work yesterday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. He never lived to tell the story as to how he met the girl, nor where he was bound.

Funeral services for the Whiting victim will be conducted at the Spansburg Funeral Home on Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Reverend Porter of the M. E. church, and will be supervised by the K. of P. lodge, of which he was a member. Interment will be at the Oak Hill cemetery, Hammond.

Dear Parents,

While in your child's classroom today as a volunteer with the Jefferson County Agriculture in the Classroom Committee, I taught a lesson plan titled "A Day Without Agriculture."

wisagclassroom.org

As you probably know, we move farther and farther away from agriculture each year. Our committee believes it is important to help everyone realize how significant agriculture is in our everyday lives. During today's lesson, the students made this "Farm Web" which demonstrates the by-products that come from a farm. Ask your child about some of the agriculture by-products that are used in the morning, even before leaving the house for school. Tell him/her to think about the bed, the floor, the brush, what is eaten, and the clothes that are worn.

I hope your child learned the main focus of today's lesson: Agriculture is essential and you can't live a day without it!

Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding:
Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions: Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations:
All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been, and are become as though they had never been born, and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance.
Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore.

Ecclesiasticus.

1044. St. Keverne

Q8056 ST. KEVERNE CHURCH.

The records of the Bosanko family are relatively few. On my mother's side of the house, the Newtons, Parsons, Smiths etc., being New Englanders of wealth and prominence, have family records in a good state of preservation, whereas the Bosankos would seem to have been plain people who made no great noise in their small world. In the Cornwall of a hundred years and more ago, few records were kept outside of the parish church entries of marriages, baptisms and deaths and even these were not in the best of condition. I have not had the opportunity of making a personal search in the records of St. Keverne's Church nor have I cared to pay the high fees charged by professional genealogists.

The family is of native Cornish stock. The name, spelt in a number of ways, such as Besanquo, Bosancow, Bosanketh, means, in the Cornish tongue, "The House of Death or Sorrow." (Bos - a house or family; ancow - death.) Of the origin of this very gloomy appellation, I am in complete ignorance. For the etymology of the name, see "A Glossary of Cornish Names" by the Rev. John Bannister, Vicar of St. Day. Williams and Morgate, Edinburgh, 1871. This volume is in the library of Yale University.

The traditional arms of the family are, "On a field or, a tree proper on a mound purpure: on a chief gules a mullet between two crescents of the field. Crest; a demi-lion rampant. Motto; Per damna per caedes." There is no record of these arms in any of the Heraldic Visitations of the Duchy. I have a very old ivory seal marked "J.B." under the family crest, once the property of my grand-father James Bosanko, though it may well antedate him. The fact that a simple family should have coat-armour would seem strange in Saxon England, but Cornwall is a Celtic land and shares this oddity with her sister Brittany where fishermen, descendants of old families, not infrequently have a right to elaborate armorial bearings. The old Cornish language flourished till the end of the Eighteenth Century and I am of the opinion that my ancestors of ten generations ago considered the English as pushing foreigners with an unknown speech in their mouths.

The first Bosankos of whom I have definite record are three children, JOHN, THOMAS and ELEANOR. They lived in the church-town of St. Keverne on the south coast of Cornwall. I do not know in what social class to place them, but I judge that they would have been put with the yeoman-farmers of the district and most decidedly not among the gentry. While most of the Cornish are Wesleyan Methodists, I believe that the family has always been "Church" and has considered itself a little above the common run. St. Keverne itself I have never visited, but, to show something of the town and of the state of the records there, I quote a portion of a letter written to my Mother by a friend who visited the town a few years before the war.

"Here I am among the ancestral graves, and a quaint, old-world spot it is. It is eleven miles from the nearest railway and my friend and I drove twenty miles to get here....It is a cruel shore here, full of stories of shipwrecks and drownings, as indeed the church-yard is of graves of the drowned. I am lodging with a lady whose great-uncle was a Bosanko, Richard, apparently a brother of James, both being sons of John. I found John's gravestone yesterday, also an old man who knew him more than fifty years ago. Here is the inscription;

'Sacred to the Memory of Mary, wife of John Bosanko of this parish, who died at Trevethian Sept. 6, 1845, aged 76 years. Also of John Bosanko, died August 22, 1856, aged 90 years.

And am I born to die
To lay this body down?'

The name is now entirely extinct here and in Crowan and Breage. To visit these last named places would necessitate a drive of more than forty miles. This morning I spent an hour with the Vicar of St. Keverne's examining the records which go back to 1580 and decided that the only feasible way to get accurate knowledge was to hire an expert to decipher the dates and statements. They are many of them very dim and written in a crabbed hand which would severely tax the eyesight of any amateur."

The town of Crowan here mentioned is a minute dependency of St. Keverne. Its parish records have been published and are available in the library of Yale University. To show the entries there, I append a list of Bosanko names from the register of marriages, going back as far as the entries were kept.

THE BERRYMAN FAMILY

E L E A N O R B O S A N K O (1) married Charles Berryman, farmer, in 1793. These are my great-grandparents. I have a lock of her hair kept by her daughter Alice. The writing on the outer envelope is that of my cousin, the second Alice Berryman Bosanko.

*This is a lock of hair
from Great-Grandmother*

*Eleanor Berryman — the writing on the enclosed is Grandmother Alice Berryman Bosanko
A. B. B.*

Eleanor is said to have been a very beautiful woman with a very fine voice. From old letters, I gather the fact that the children of this marriage were numerous. There is mention of a daughter SARAH (2) who was married and living in Australia with a child Nancy (3). There is also mention of another daughter ELEANOR (2) married to a man named Bennet and having a son Joseph (3). There was also a JANE (2) living in Cornwall and a CHARLES (2) and a BETSY (2). Three other children stand out of the mist; HENRY BERRYMAN (2) a successful rancher living in South Australia, from one of whose letters I quote:

*Probably sent to Alice

Flinders Street, Adelaide, South Australia.
26 June 1863

My dear Sister,

Yours of the 24th March last, came to hand in due time. I now sit down to answer it by the first opportunity. I was very surprised to find by it that Samuel my brother was dead. I never heard a sound of it before, neither do I know where to write to any of them. I don't know where sister Jane is, or I would write to her and send her some money if she stood in need of it, of which I have no doubt she do.* They have all kept themselves aloof from writing me ever since I sent home some Australian specimens of copper by a partner of mine (who went to England about four years since) to Samuel. I have been in the habit of sending our colonial papers to him ever since. I have left home so long that I don't know who is left thereabout that I could enquire of. (The 13th next month will be 34 years since I left for Brazil and I have only been in Cornwall 9 or 10 months since.) So, if they don't think me worthy of writing to, they can keep their paper and ink and I will keep mine. I was much annoyed when I had your letter and found that Samuel had been dead so long and no one sent me word of it.

You say you had a letter from Joseph Bennet. You say he is in a place called Iowa (where is that?) and that Sister Eleanor his mother is with him. What is he doing? Where is brother Henry? I had a letter from him from the Melbourne Diggings some five or six years since, but where he is now I don't know. I should like to hear from Sister Eleanor. Is Sister Betsy alive or dead? Sally has never wrote me like a sister should have done. I took her daughter Nanny and brought her up as well as my own children, but Sally has never, I beleive, been satisfied with the treatment she recieved from us, but many is the time since she has been married that she wished she was back with Uncle and Aunt again. I have lent the Husband assistance on several occasions, but without any thanks. My wife do at the present time keep the children in clothes. About six or seven years since, the Husband came to me and said that he wanted to go to Melbourne or Sidney; he thought he could get more wages there. I persuaded him not to do so, but all to no purpose. I asked him if he had money enough to take him there, he said no, I gave him five pounds, he have never sent me a letter even saying where he is from that time to this, nor do I know.

My dear Sister, enough of that sort. I must now tell you of some of my own ailments. I was taken ill in last November, seized in the first place with a violent cold, which turned to bronchitis, and a touch of asthma accompanied with consumption. I have nearly lost my voice. I think some times that I may live out the winter, but at other times I very much doubt it. So you must not be surprised if by any mail you hear that you have a brother less. All my family are in good health and all except John, who is away, joins me in kindest love to you and hope that you are enjoying one of the greatest blessings on this side of the grave, viz good health which we only know how to appreciate when ill. I herewith send you one of our daily papers which I hope may reach you. You say you sent me two papers but neither one have come to hand. If you go into the Tavern, I hope you will do well. Have you ever kept a Tavern before?

I am

My dear Sister
your truly affct Brother Hy Berryman.

(The last reference in this letter to my grandmother concerns an unrealized business venture.)

Captain SAMUEL BERRYMAN (2) lived his life in his native Cornwall. From his title, I judge that he followed the sea. I have an old photograph of him and two letters to his sister, my grandmother. One is little more than a note, but the other is of sufficient interest to warrant quoting.

Killivose, Camborne,
January 22, 1862.

My dear Sister,

.....With regards to myself and your invitation to visit America. I am very much obliged to you for the invitation, circumstances alter cases. I am afraid that it's too late. I am very weak scarcely able to sit up and write this letter, gradually wasting away from the effects of a severe cold caught some 2 1/2 years ago which I cannot shake off. Settled on the windpipes, producing inflammation in the same. It's commonly called bronchitis. This Disease carries off 75 per cent of the population of England (or three fourths). I have been away from home 5 times for a change of air have derived no benefit therefrom.....As to Brother Henry he is living in Adelaide. He has been gold digging some years ago but lately he has been contracting for the making of Railways they say he is Rich worth several thousand pounds I have got no letter from him these two years last past..... I think Brother Jonathan has acted wisely in keeping the safe side of England. We do not want to fall out with our American cousins but they must Behave or the lion will Roar and Shake his mane at them.

We Remain Dear Sister

Your affectionate Brother and sister
S & Jane Berryman.

One can but wonder what bit of international tension produced the delightful closing threat. It is evident that great-uncle Samuel was a stout Briton who would brook no foolishness from overseas.

A L I C E B E R R Y M A N (2) my grandmother.
Of her, Cousin Alice has kept a very clear picture. She seems to have been a woman of exceptionally strong character, combined with a steadiness and sweetness of disposition which made her greatly loved. As a girl, she had been trained as a dressmaker. She told the story that, while working on the trousseau of one of the daughters of the local gentry, she had had a whirlwind courtship by her first cousin, James Bosanko, a young carpenter and builder, married him October 10, 1839 and a few months later sent him out to America to seek his fortune. In 1840 he had settled in the city of New York and his wife, with a nine months old baby, joined him after a voyage on a sailing ship which lasted eight weeks. Finding life in New York unsatisfactory, the young couple moved to Toronto and then to the nearby town of Aurora in what was then the Province of Upper Canada. Here grandmother lived the rest of her life and brought up her numerous family. When my grandfather was killed, she realized what she could do on his property and opened a small dressmaking shop which she operated successfully for some years. Her husband's death took place six months before the birth of my father and was, obviously, a tremendous shock. Grandmother always explained the poor eyesight of her youngest child on the ground of her constant weeping during the last months of her pregnancy. Grandmother had very beautiful, wavy hair. Cousin Alice says that, following grandfather's death, grandmother felt that curls were not in accord with a widow's grief and that she did all she could to make her hair lie flat, with the result that it curled more than ever. In the end, she was forced to resign herself to the inevitable. Another story that Cousin Alice tells of her is that one day my father came home weeping with the complaint that another boy had beaten him in a fight. On discovering that the enemy was no larger than my father, grandmother sent him out again with orders to hunt up the young man and thrash him or take a good spanking at home. She died in Aurora, Canada, about 1879 and is buried there.

(Cousin Alice added the following note, written in June 1934.) "In reading your notes of Grandmother's work taken up following Grandfather's death (he was kicked in the abdomen by his own spirited horse, which he was leading, and died in thirty-six hours): Grandmother employed a friend whom she took into business with her, a Miss Ruth Stevenson, whom we all called "Aunt Ruth." So successful were they that Grandmother not only took care of and educated her six sons, but also paid off a debt of $20,000 on the property left her by her husband. The buildings on the property (built by Grandfather) consisted of a small hotel and stables facing Young Street and a cottage facing the side street, in which all the family grew up. Later this hotel and stables were burned with only $1,200 insurance on them, which greatly decreased Grandmother's income during the last years of her life. I lived with Grandmother from the time I was four or five years old, when my mother died, until Grandmother's death ten years later when I went to live with Uncle Charles Bosanko. During all those busy years, Grandmother had a maid, Annie Brown, who did the housework. I dimly remember her; she married when I was about six and went to live in a neighboring town."

ALICE BERRYMAN BOSANKOWEB

THE BOSANKO FAMILY

J O H N B O S A N K O (1) , my great-grandfather, was born in St. Keverne's Parish, Cornwall, in 1766 and lived to the age of ninety, dying in 1856. I know little of him, except that he was the local estate-agent for Lord ? who had properties in the district. His wife was a Mary ? who was born in 1769 and died in 1845. They are both buried in St. Keverne's churchyard and had at least two children.

J A M E S B O S A N K O (2) my grandfather, was killed by a kick of his horse 10 April 1855 and is buried in Aurora, Canada. I know little of him beyond the fact that he was a small contractor and builder and seems to have prospered to a modest degree. Of his children I have fairly full records. They were:

1. JOHN BOSANKO (3) who was born in Cornwall 4 January 1840 and was brought to this country as a baby. He married Ann McEwan in Aurora 29 October 1862. She died shortly after the birth of a second child, who also died, and is buried in Aurora. His first child, Alice Berryman, was brought up by Grandmother. When I was in college, Uncle John came to visit us in Hartford and to see his daughter for the first time since she was a baby. He was a dry little old man for whom I took rather a liking during the few days he spent with us. He went back to Aurora to spend his last years and died there.

ALICE BERRYMAN BOSANKO (4), his surviving child, has filled the place of a father in my life. From what she has said, I gather that Grandmother Bosanko must have been very much like her. She was born in Aurora, Christmas Day 1865. There she spent a very happy girlhood till Grandmother's death when she was about fifteen. At this time, Uncle Charles was a prosperous dentist in Barrie and took her into his home and finished her education. As a young woman, she was engaged to a very wealthy man who came down with tuberculosis. Knowing that he could not live, she refused to marry him but nursed him till his death. My father being at this time in Colorado, she joined him there as she was very fond of him. When he died, she came East with my Mother and graduated as a nurse from the Hartford Hospital. For a number of years she followed her profession, leaving it to marry my Mother's first cousin, Francis Parsons Webb 31 January 1914. Till my Mother's death, she, Frank and Alice lived together in Hartford.

2. CHARLES HENRY BOSANKO (3), the second son of James and Alice, was born in Toronto, 1 December 1842 and died in Barrie, 10 July 1925. When the family moved to Aurora, Uncle Charles went to the neighboring town of Barrie to attend high-school. After his graduation, he worked as an office-boy for a local doctor and continued his studies at night. He next worked his way through the University of Toronto and received the degree of Licentiate of Dental Surgery. He returned to Barrie to practise and some ten years later went to the University of Pennsylvania for his doctor's degree. He married Isabelle Laird of Barrie December 27, 1871. Uncle Charles was devoted to his family and helped most of his younger brothers get their educations. He was very fond of my father whom he considered as his own son. After many years of prosperity he grew old and sick and Cousin Alice returned to Barrie to do what she could for him and for Aunt Belle. Shortly after her arrival, they both died, Aunt Belle on May 28. I saw but little of either of them, though I remember a visit Aunt Belle made us in Hartford when I was a boy and a month we spent in Barrie when I was in college. Aunt Belle was a silent, bony woman whom Cousin Alice, who knew her best, has characterized as "cold and selfish." Uncle Charles, with whom I always kept in touch by letter, was of a very different temperament. He was impulsive, warm-hearted and loyal and I cherish his memory. The following is a letter which he wrote me at the time of my marriage. I add it, not because the sentiment is original, but because Uncle Charles lived his ideal through long years of good and bad fortune with a constancy few can equal.

Barrie, Aug. 18, 1921.

Dear Paul & Blanche,

This is not an easy letter for me to write, not having had much practise on the subject. However, I will commence by saying that marriage is the most important and responsible contract that you and Blanche will ever be called upon to make in this life. It is a very serious problem to solve, there is no joke about it to well-balanced, thinking people, which I hope you both fully realize. Now Paul, to make it a success, I implore you as naturally the stronger of the two, to be sure the weight of the burden of life is carried by you, especially on the hills and over the rough places on the road. Do not expect the Lord to give you any particular protection, but by your unceasing and never-wavering love and constancy in your personal kindness Blanche will lean upon you as an unfailing husband and lover. I do not mean for a month, a year, ten years, but for life.

After a married life of fifty years I have had some experience and know something of what I am trying to say to you. Aunt Belle joins me in congratulations and all good wishes for your future happiness.

Your affectionate uncle, Bosanko.

The Bosanko family is of two distinct physical types; one, short, thick-set, with sandy or red hair, the typical Cornish build. Grandmother, Uncle Charles, Cousin Alice and most of the family were of this type. The other, found in Alfred, Richard, my Father and myself, is tall, fair and slender. When I was in college I had a series of anthropological measurements taken by a scientist from the Smithsonian Institute who was working on a research problem in Yale. He told me that I was an excellent example of the Teutonic type.

3. JAMES BOSANKO (3) was born in Aurora June 24, 1845. Cousin Alice has told me that he was the only one of the boys who was not fine, kindly and devoted to Grandmother. She describes him as a mean man and a "skin-flint" who ran away from home as soon as he was able to do so. He settled in Atchison, Kansas and married Cevilla Lieb (28 April 1872). He became a butcher and packer and had several daughters and one son RICHARD JAMES (4) who is married and lives in Denver. While I was living in Greeley, Colorado, this Richard looked me up and we spent an evening together. He seemed to be a pleasant fellow, of no particular education, who had followed his father's trade. He was of the typical Cornish build and told me that he had several children. He also said that he had met a number of Bosankos in the West who, though Cornish, had no connection that could be discovered with our family.

4. MARY ELEANOR (3) was born 27 September 1846 and died in infancy 27 October 1847.

5. MARY ELLEN (3) who also died in infancy (11 April 1848 - 2 October 1849.)

6. SAMUEL (3) who died at birth. (13 - 18 September 1850.)

7. ALFRED (3) was born 5 May 1852. He was known as Uncle Fred and was of my Father's type. Uncle Charles helped him to become a dentist and he settled in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he died, leaving two children IRENE MAY(4) and ARTHUR GEORGE (4). Cousin Alice has told me that he was a very brilliant, clever man with a marked gift for drawing, a gift which he used in illustrating most of his letters home.

8. RICHARD GEORGE (3) was born 13 March 1854. He was also helped by Uncle Charles with his education. He settled in Atchison, Kansas, where he became a successful butcher and packer. He had one son, HARRY (4) who lived in Oklahoma City. We have never had any contact with this branch of the family. The following clipping concerning him was cut from an Atchison paper and sent by him to Uncle Charles who in turn sent it to Cousin Alice. He died 7 August 1926.

R. G. Bosanko, who has lived in Atchison fifty years, had his sixty-seventh birthday yesterday and in the afternoon between forty and fifty of his friends called at his home on Sixth and Kearney streets to offer congratulations. Mrs. Bosanko served punch to the callers, many of whom remained to visit. The visitors talked over old times, most of them had known Mr. Bosanko all during the years he has lived here. Mr. Bosanko has been engaged in business in Atchison for forty years and during that time has never taken a vacation or a leave in the family, or possibly a slight business of his own, has detained him from his place of business for several days from time to time, but with those exceptions he has always been on the job. He actually loves work and his idea of punishment was to be deprived of working. R. G. Bosanko was born in Toronto, Canada, where one of his brothers, a doctor, now lives. He has a son, Harry, Bosanko in Oklahoma City, and his wife's daughters, Mrs. Clarence Blanke, of Atchison, and Mrs. Searles Bolman, of Concordia are as dear to him as though they were his own. Among those to wish Mr. Bosanko many happy returns of the day were many who, during the forty years he has been in business in Atchison, have traded exclusively with him, and it must have been gratifying to Mr. Bosanko to hear the expressions of esteem in regard to him, exchanged by his customers and friends of forty years standing.

My Dear
Sister

Yours of the 27th March last, came to hand in due time; I sit down to answer it by the first opportunity, — I was very much surprised to find by it that Samuel my Bro.
was dead, I never heard a sound;
it before, neither do I know when to write to any of them, I don't know where sister Jane is, or, I would write her and send her some money if she stood in need of it, of which I have no doubt she do, They have al-kept themselves aloof from writing me, ever since, I sent home some Australian Specimens of Copper, by a partner of mine (who went to England about 4 years since) to Samuel, I have been in the habit of sending our Colonial papers to him ever since,

I have left home so long that I don't know who is left - Hereabout that I could enquire off. (The 13th next-month will be 34 years since I left for Brazil and I have only been in Cornwall about 9 or 10 months since) So if th don't think me worthy of writing, to they can keep their paper and ink, an I will keep mine, I was very much - anoyed when I had your letter and found that Samuel had been dead so long.
No one sent me word of it;

You say you had a letter from Joseph Binnette you say he is in a place calle Gowā, (where is that,) and that Sister Elono his Mother is with him, what is he doing, where is the Brother Henry, I had a letter from him from the Melbourne Liggins some 5 or 6 years since, but where he is now I don't know, I should like to hear from Sister Elonor, Is Sister Betty dead or alive, Sally has never wrote me like a Sister should have done, &c &c

My dear Paul

I might as well say at first that I feel ashamed of myself for not writing to you long ago. and think about the last thing for you to do is to come over and give me a good strong lecture. it might wake me up. I was pleased to receive a copy of your paper "The Weekly Chat" and you just served me right when you did not mail the subsequent numbers when I did not send the subscription price, however I am aware that it is a custom followed by publishers not to continue mailing copies to people who don't forward the cash, so as I wish to remain on your list enclosed you will find an order for one dollar ^{$1.00} when my subscription expires let me know & I will remit.

Well Paul I am gratified to know that you have recovered from your very serious illness of some time ago and hope you will grow up a big strong man and be a source of comfort to your Mother.

Rare stamps seem a hard thing to get however I have managed to secure three Jubilees which are very scarce here now, and hope they will please you. Give my love to your Mother and your Grandmother and don't forget to send me the Chat when published

And believe me your loving but perhaps careless

HIS HOME IN BURLINGTON - ONTARIO

OBITUARY

DR. C. H. BOSANKO

Dr. C. H. Bosanko, one of the oldest professional men of Barrie, passed away on Friday, July 10, at his late residence, Mulcaster St. He had been in feeble health for some time and a fall down the stairs of his home about two weeks ago, together with the death of his wife some weeks ago, no doubt hastened the end. Dr. Bosanko was born in Toronto on December 1st, 1842, but spent most of his boyhood days at Aurora, where he received his early education. In July, 1869, he graduated from the Royal Dental College, Toronto, and in September of the same year he came to Barrie and entered into partnership with the late Dr. J. A. McCausland. In 1873, he took a post-graduate course in Philadelphia Royal Dental College and received his D.D.S. in February, 1874. Since that time he had been practicing in Barrie till his retirement about five years ago. In 1871 he married Isabella Laird, daughter of the late John Laird of Barrie, who predeceased him by a month. One brother survives, Richard G. Bosanko, of Atchison, Kan., U.S.A.; also a niece, Mrs. Frances Webb, of Hartford, U.S.A.

The late Dr. Bosanko was among the oldest Free Masons in Barrie. In September, 1865, he joined Rising Sun Lodge, No. 129, Aurora, and in 1873 he was made a Royal Arch Mason in Signet Chapter, No. 34, Orillia. He was a charter member of Kerr Lodge, No. 230, and had the honor of being a Past Master.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, under Masonic auspices. Interment took place at the Union cemetery.

My Dear Sister Alice

Your letter of the 25th Feb^y last, came to hand in due time, and you may be assured I was not a little surprised on opening it to find that it was from you, as I have often thought I should never see you or see you again, I am ~~heartily~~ heartily glad to find by your letter that you are getting on very fair, as far as this world is concerned, and I hope your sons are all dutiful and obedient children, and that they will stick to their mother as long as they may need their assistance.

I never heard that Samuel was ill before you mentioned it on your letter. It is very curious that I have not had a letter

I shall expect you to answer this as soon as possible and enclose your ticket from him for more than three years the reason for which I can't account and none of the others ever think of writing, whether they are dead or alive living in England or else = where I don't know, I am sure there is nothing that gives me greater pleasure than to hear from my Brothers & Sisters, but my having left England in the first place 33 years the 13th of next month ^{that time} and only been there 17-month since has so estranged them from me, that they scarcely know or care whether their Brother Henry is alive or dead, but enough of that for the present

I married as you are aware in Brazils in South America, we have had eight children five of which are no more, my eldest son and in fact only son, is 23 years of age, is keeping a Drapery & Grocery Store at a place called Hatter-about 120 miles from here, on a township near where there have been some rich mines opened out of late, he is not married; My Eldest daughter is in her 18th year the youngest is 16 years this very day and about two hours since I made her a birth day present, & while am writing ^{artillery} they are firing a Royal Salute of 21 Guns in honor of the 25th anniversary of the ascension of our Queen Victoria to the throne of Great Britain.

My Dear Sister Since I have been in South Australia I have done very little toward mining, I only mined for about 2 years, and then the Gold Diggings broke out, among other. I went, but did nothing very great. after that I returned to Adelaide and commenced to Contract under Government for making a Line of Railway, in which undertaking I was very Successful, My first contract amounted to about 25,000 £, and the succeeding ones to about 15,000 £. So that out of the whole I think I have made enough to keep me from hard work for the remainder portion of my days, unless any unforeseen accident occurs.

My Dear wife and two daughters are members of the Wesleyan Body and I wish I could say the same of myself, I have had for the last week or 10 days a violent attack of influenza, of which I am not quite free at present, Enclosed you will

9. S A M U E L A R T H U R B O S A N K O (3) my father, was born 25 November 1855. On his father's death, he went to Uncle Charles who helped him to get his education. He attended the University of Toronto where he took the degrees of B.M., C.M. and M.D. in 1881. After graduation, he practised for a short time in a small town in Kansas. The story goes that the local nabob, a wealthy Southerner, took a great fancy to him, as did the gentleman's daughter. My father did not reciprocate and, Grandmother falling ill, he sold his practise and returned to Canada. He remained at home till his mother's death and then signed a contract with a mining company as surgeon in the booming mining town of Leadville in Colorado. When he arrived there he found that the company had vanished into thin air and that the camp was in the midst of an epidemic of small-pox from the contagion of which most of the doctors had fled. A pest-camp was soon established and he, together with a French physician named D'Avignon, threw themselves into the work of saving as many victims as possible. When the epidemic was over, he and D'Avignon were the heroes of the camp and patients came to both of them in almost too great numbers.

Some little time after this, my grandfather Newton came West with the idea of establishing iron-works in Colorado. Caught with the mining-fever, he left his

When I was two years old, Cousin Alice left her home in Barrie to join our family in Leadville. In the mean time, my father's practise and reputation as a surgeon had outgrown the confines of Leadville and he was contemplating a move to Hartford when, over-worked and tired out, he came down with a severe case of pneumonia and died after a short illness on November 23, 1895, two days before his fortieth birthday. He is buried in the Parsons lot in the Cedar Hill Cemetery in Hartford. The following clipping is from a Barrie paper of the time.

The Late Dr. Arthur Bosanko.
Dr. Arthur Bosanko, a former and respected resident of Barrie, an old Collegiate Institute boy, and a graduate of the Toronto School of Medicine and Victoria University, died at his home in Leadville, Colorado, U. S., on the 23rd ultimo. He was taken ill, but persisted in going out and attending his patients. A bad cold was contracted, which developed into pneumonia. His illness lasted but ten days. He had the premonition that it would be mortal, and at the beginning arranged all his affairs. Three doctors were in constant attendance, but their skill was of no avail. His niece, Miss Bosanko, of this town, was on a visit to her uncle, and at the time was looking after his household while Mrs. Bosanko was in the Eastern States. The latter was telegraphed for but did not reach home in time to be recognized by her husband, who had been unconscious for several days before her arrival. The late Dr. Bosanko was of a persevering, kind and bright nature, was well liked by all and had built up an extensive practice. His death was deeply regretted by the citizens of Leadville who attended the solemn and impressive funeral service in one large concert hall. His body was temporarily buried at Denver, thence to be brought to Hartford, Conn., his wife's maiden home. It seems a sad thing for a comparatively young man of forty years of age to be cut off so quickly in the midst of life, leaving a young wife and son. Tragic evidence of human mortality.

As I was but four years old when he died, my memories of him amount to but little beyond one or two disconnected pictures. Cousin Alice has spoken of him a great deal and his memory has been very dear to me. He was a man of rather outstanding intellect, possessing a very keen sense of honor and duty and was a tireless worker. In physical type and emotional reactions I have conformed fairly closely to his model.

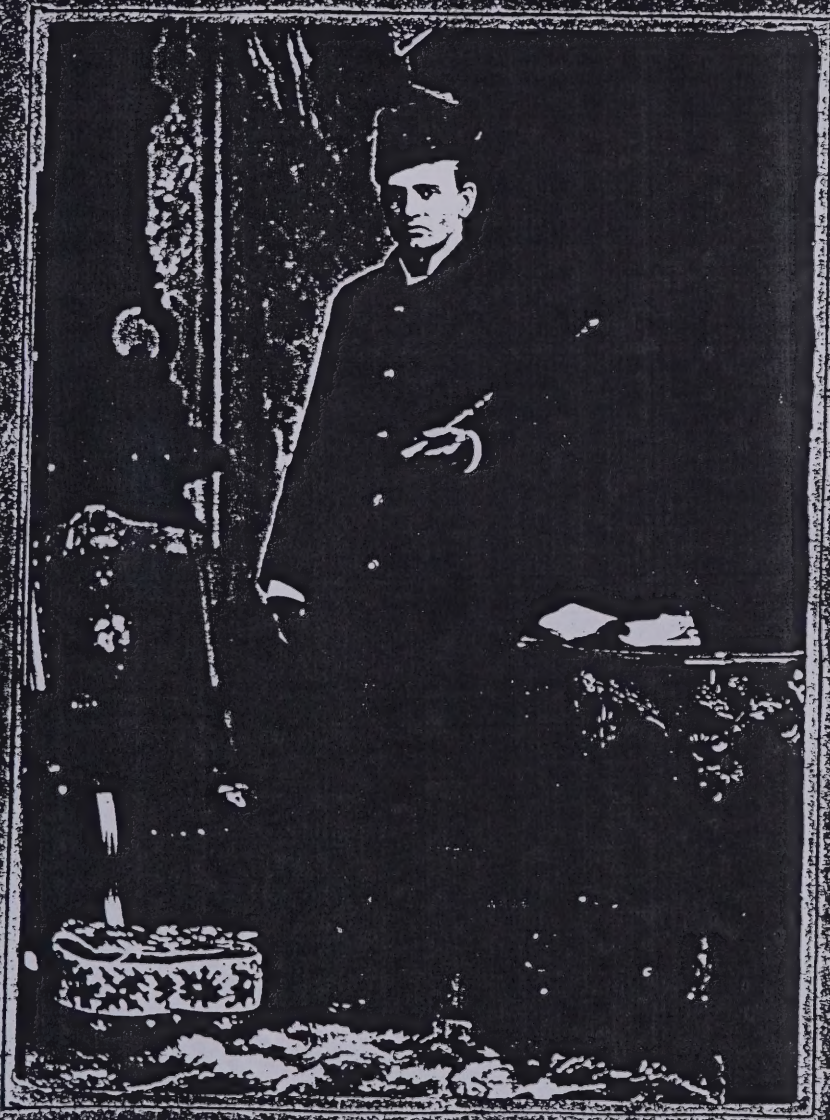

During his life in Leadville his closest friend and associate was the Doctor D'Avignon with whom he first came to the camp. This D'Avignon was a Frenchman, a vicompte, who had been an army-surgeon. Infatuated with a charming lady and unable to meet her financial requirements, he had taken certain liberties with the regimental mess-accounts which made a trip to America the obvious thing. A man's past history was of little account in a Western mining-camp and Dr. D'Avignon, a gentleman and an able physician, soon stood in the front rank of his profession. He was my god-father. It was while acting as pall-bearer at the funeral of his best friend that my father caught the cold that brought on his own death less than a fortnight later.

The Colorado of my mother's early days was still in its pioneer stage. Denver was a straggling and unlovely town, the end of the railroad, from which point wagon-trains left for the camps in the mountains. Leadville itself was one of the boom camps of the Old West, a wide-open, roaring settlement of some twenty-thousand men gathered from the four corners of the Earth to make a quick fortune. It must have presented a strange picture to the gently-reared Eastern women. Mother was full of stories of her early married life in Leadville, of the little wooden cottage heated by stoves and none too well built to withstand a mountain winter, of water sold at a dollar a barrel, of the streets always bordered by rushing streams of muddy sluice-water from the mines, of the quick fortunes and of the equally quick failures. She used to tell of a fire which broke out near the house in which she was living and which destroyed the town's best known brothel. As many of the "ladies" were patients of my father. Mother felt it her duty to offer several of them temporary shelter. She said that their conduct, during their brief visit, was most exemplary and that their public gratitude was quite embarrassing. To compensate for the rough life of the camp, there was a very active society among the numerous Eastern and European gentlefolk. Dinner-parties were frequent and formal, the guests usually arriving and leaving in a body with the ladies in the middle and the gentlemen on the outside, their revolvers ready in their coat pockets. The annual Leadville Assembly was a ball of great magnificence, many of the women appearing in Paris gowns and enjoying the supper served by Sherry's of New York. As the camp declined, the fortunate moved East or to rapidly growing Denver where they settled down in great sanctity and became "prominent families," their frequently lurid Leadville days put behind them.

RICHARD BOSANKO (2). My grandfather James Bosanko evidently left at least one brother in Cornwall when he came out to Canada. I have never been able to learn anything of this brother, Richard, nor of his family, beyond one letter which he wrote to my grandmother and which was found among her papers. He would seem to have been a tenant-farmer, married and with two sons, John and Richard junior (3). As there are no Bosankos left in St. Keverne, I judge that the boys went out to the colonies when they grew up.

very much, and I might say that he has not felt well since. His sickness came on so gradually that I hardly know when. You will doubtless know that he suffered from heart disease and that was the cause of his sudden death. I am like yourself, left with one little boy, Harry, he was six years old this month.

Annual Class Day Takes Place in School Chapel

On Friday, May 31, the annual Class Day Exercises took place at two o'clock in the Chapel. The boys marched in in the same order that they used Sunday at the Vesper Service. The students and guests sang the hymn "America," accompanied by Mr. Jones at the organ, while the Seniors entered in single file.

First on the program was the class prophecy, put on with great success by Bros, Clifford, Cohen, Raines, Ryan, and Stoker. The skit, which took place in a notorious part of Germany and necessitated numerous cases of liquor, gave a brief but thorough future to each

Our Late Friend

When Mr. Alder took the platform in chapel Monday, May 13, very few boys realized how serious the import of his speech was to be, for he announced that Mr. Bosanko had died the day before, Sunday morning. The news was stunning. It was hard to believe at first, for only Saturday Mr. Bosanko had driven to the University to watch his son and some of his other French students act in a University Theater presentation of a French play called "Topaze." Then the next morning he died. His passing was a painful blow to a great many, both inside and outside the school, for his genial personality had gained him a multitude of friends.

Mr. Bosanko led a life of many achievements. He graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy in June of 1910 and entered Yale the succeeding fall. He received his B.A. and his L.L.B. from the latter, and in 1922 was granted a Master's degree from Colorado State Teacher's College. He then took courses toward a Doctor's degree while an instructor of French and Spanish at the University of Minnesota in 1922-25. During World War I he was an officer for twelve months in the British Army in France. Upon his return to the U. S. he became an assistant in the Foreign Securities Dept. of the Equitable Trust Co., of New York. He was a member of the Connecticut Bar Association and the Lambda Alpha Psi, the honorary Linguistic Fraternity of the Universities.

In the fall of 1925 Mr. Bosanko became a member of the Blake faculty, remaining in these hallowed halls for twenty-one years, up to the time of his death. While here he became a past master of Lake Harriet Lodge, A.F. and A.M., a member of York and Spanish Rites, senior warden of the Lodge of Education, and a member of St. John's Episcopal Church. This may seem like a great number of accomplishments for only one man, but Mr. Bosanko was industrious and enjoyed being busy.

While at Blake he was an enthusiastic backer of all the Swimming Teams which the school produced, and was Faculty Advisor for swimming the majority of his years here. As a teacher of French and Spanish, Mr. Bosanko was rarely equaled, less often surpassed. His sharp wit in and out of class won him the respect of every boy at Blake and provided his students with many a laugh at an otherwise serious moment. He had been ill for some time before he died and had undergone an operation for stomach ulcers two summers ago. This year indigestion had bothered him a great deal, and he was constantly distressed with throat trouble. When finally he passed away, the school mourned deeply. It was a doubly unfortunate happening since he had planned to retire next year and take a prolonged rest.

The TORCH Board, together with the school—students and masters alike—takes this opportunity to extend its sympathies to Mrs. Bosanko and her son and daughter, Michael and Anna.

A NOBLE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Stricken With Pneumonia Over a Week Ago
He Passes Away Saturday Morning — Sketch of the Career of One of Leadville's Leading Physicians.

Dr. S. Arthur Bosanko, the well-known physician and surgeon, died at his residence at No. 120 West Seventh Street at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

The sickness which culminated in his demise was contracted last Monday, a week ago. He was taken ill and was confined to his room, but persisted in seeing his patients in spite of his indisposition. The following Wednesday the doctor contracted a bad cold that settled on his lungs and soon manifested symptoms of pneumonia.

He was at once prostrated and became disconsolate, having a premonition of the final outcome. So strongly had this conviction taken hold of him that he made his will and gave his friend Dr. E.T. Boyd, explicit directions as to the details of his burial.

Dr. McDonald and Dr. Law were almost constant at his bedside and the best nurses of St. Vincent's hospital were vigilant in their attention upon the sick physician.

Dr. Fiske, a prominent Denver physician, had been telegraphed for and arrived on Friday of last week, when Dr. Bosanko gained some encouragement and expressed some hopes of recovery.

His mind became lucid and his temperature showed signs of improvement. But a relapse soon set in and he again became delirious and his disease seemed to have made such an advance that it could not be arrested by the best medical skill. During this entire week he has lingered, displaying much stronger vitality than his friends believed him to be possessed of. Each night it was believed that the critical hour had arrived and each morning there seemed to be a ray of hope, until Saturday when the alert eye of the physicians clearly discerned that the vital forces were about to give way and dissolution to set in. He died at the hour named, peaceably, surrounded by his wife, little boy, and attending physicians.

Dr. Bosanko, (?) old in the practice of medicine and enjoying a larger clientele than any physician in the city, was in years a young man, but 39 years of age. He was born at Barrie, Canada, and graduated from Edward McGill College, the same school of medicine which the late Dr. D'Avignon attended. After practicing at his profession at Independence in this state he came to Leadville and became the assistant of Dr. Law who was then the city physician. It was at that time that the smallpox broke out and the contagion was more virulent and fatal than it has ever been since. Dr. Bosanko was but a youth at the time and displayed such courage and skill that he at once commanded the confidence of the community and gained a magnificent gratitude which he retained to the time of his death. For many years he has been the chief surgeon of St. Vincent's Hospital. He was a young man of indomitable energy and was never known to refuse to answer a call to the bedside of the suffering, no difference how fatigued he might be from overwork or how inclement the weather. It was this overwork that undermined his constitution and caused his early death.

During the five years that he was associated with Dr. John Law, he made himself loved and respected by a host of people with whom he was brought in daily contact.

Dr. Bosanko was always ready to invest his earnings in mining enterprises and he has been one of the active investors in this field. He was heavily interested in opening up a large property at Robinson and contributed to the development of many of the mines in the Carbonite Camp.

Dr. Bosanko, by his social nature and hearty spirits, was greatly beloved by a large circle of friends and respected by the entire community. His home was the center of many pleasant social gatherings and the community will greatly miss the absent one. He leaves a wife, a pretty little son of five summers and the entire community to mourn a loyal husband, devoted father and a skillful physician and surgeon. The funeral will take place on Monday, but at the time of this writing the hour cannot be announced.

were left to my mother; silver candle-sticks with the Scott and Nichols coats-of-arms (These were left to me by my mother. In addition to the armorial engraving, one is marked "T.S.W. to E.S.P." and the other "T.S.W. to E.S.W." I can only explain the "E.S.W." as an error.P.B.) a portrait of Elizabeth's mother, tapestry, brocade, mirrors, a card-table etc. (This table was left by my mother to Francis Parsons. Grandmother Newton is a very clear memory of my childhood and I loved her deeply. Though in failing health, she was a woman of unusual character. Her life had been a very unhappy one, due to her husband's fondness for drink and to his business failure, which all but wiped out his large fortune. Her misfortunes had served to mellow rather than sour her and she was loved and respected by everyone with whom she came in contact. P. B.)

H A R R I E T W O R T H I N G T O N N E W T O N (8)
was born November 9, 1866 in St. Albans, Vermont. She lived there till her father's failure sent the family to Colorado where she met her husband Doctor Samuel Arthur Bosanko. She returned to St. Albans and was married there in 1889, returning to Leadville, Colorado, then a boom mining-camp. On her husband's death in 1895, she returned to live with her mother in Hartford.

(On the evening of February 23, 1933 my mother was suddenly taken ill and the next morning she died of acute cardial thrombosis. Her death came as a great shock to Frank and Alice Webb, with whom she had lived so long, and to me who was called from Minneapolis for her funeral. She was buried in our lot in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Hartford next to my father and a single head-stone marks their graves.

The facts of her life are relatively easy to record, but a pen much more gifted than mine would be needed to do justice to her vivid personality and brilliant mind. However, no family record would be complete without some attempt to show her to those who did not know her, so I shall do my best.

Her birth and family are a mystery. Elizabeth Scott Parsons (Newton), discovering that she could never hope for children of her own, adopted my mother in her infancy. Alice Berryman Bosanko (Webb) who was her life-long friend, has written me, "All I know is what your mother told me. Grandmother Newton never mentioned the subject to anyone, except to your father on the occasion of his engagement to your mother and she bound him to secrecy, saying that your mother never knew, which fact she firmly believed as long as she lived. Grandmother Newton wished to adopt a baby girl and a young and very attractive woman brought this child to a Home for Children either in New York or Brooklyn, I am not positive which. I do know, however, that the young woman said she came from Brooklyn. She was very young and the inference was that she was a widow. At any rate, they took it for granted and your grandmother was given the baby with the absolute understanding that she would never again hear from or see the mother, which she never did. When your mother grew up, she learned from some busy-bodies in St. Albans that she had been adopted and she appealed to Cousin Sarah Fowler to help her in ferreting out some clew to her parentage. This attempt was not successful, beyond the fact that the young woman came from Brooklyn, which she already knew."

Her childhood in St. Albans was a very happy one, but with Grandfather Newton's failure, I imagine that Mother's life was not pleasant, though she seldom spoke of this period. The family lived in Hartford and in Brooklyn while Grandfather tried to get on his feet again and, when she was old enough, Mother was sent to Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Connecticut, to finish her education. Her married life in Colorado was brief - only six years - and the greater part of her time was spent quietly in Hartford taking care of Grandmother Newton, who was in failing health, and in seeing to my up-bringing.

Mother was a great reader and a brilliant conversationalist, with one of the keenest and best informed minds it has ever been my good fortune to meet. Many times, during my school and college years, I would come home, full of some new idea, only to find that Mother was already much better informed on it than I was myself. I shall always remember the long evenings that I have spent in front of the fire with her, talking religion, philosophy, history and speculating on Life and its meaning. I feel that I learned much more from her than I ever did from my purely academic work. Though of high moral standards, she was no puritan and thoroughly enjoyed a good drink, a good story and a smoke. Many is the night-cap I have had with her at the end of one of our talks, long after the rest of the family had gone to bed.

Being a woman of decided opinions and strong character, it was inevitable that we should come into conflict as I grew older, but underneath, we were very close to each other. From the time when I left home till her death, Mother made it a rule to send me a weekly letter, which was an endless pleasure to us. Many of them I have kept and feel that they will better show what manner of woman she was than will any words of my own. I do not wish to draw her as without faults, for she had her share. Yet, considering the disappointments of her girlhood and married life, I think that she kept a very sane view of life and lived through strains which might well have wrecked a character less strong than hers. P. B.)

Subject: Cousin Jack, Man For The Times
Hi List,

I have borrowed from my local library the book 'Cousin Jack, Man For The Times', A history of the Cornish people in Victoria, by Ruth Hopkins published in 1994.

I have only just started reading it but its full of wonderful info and names.

BOSANKO'S listed are: -

BOSANKO William page 118. Lists William as a bootmaker in Avoca.

BOSANKO W.H. page 146. Lists W.H. as the proprietor of the newspaper the 'Ballan Times'.

BESANKO John Jr. & Snr. page 131. "John arrived in Sydney with his parents in 1844. By 1846 they were in Adelaide but when news of the goldrushes came in 1851, they made immediately for Melbourne. Peter Garrett was another Collingwood butcher.

Besanko snr. showed his flair by following the goldrushes and opening stores, one of the surer ways to goldfields success. By 1857 they were in a position to purchase land which they did at Smeaton near Ballarat, in which John shared and where he farmed for four years. He was Cornish, it is true, but after a relatively short time spent mining first at Creswick, then Gippsland and eventually New Zealand, he was appointed as a mine manager. Just to prove his versatility, following some unsuccessful mining speculation, he moved to Kensington, where he went into business as was successful as a butcher."

If anyone would like more information or lookups for other Cornish names please let me know.

Regards

Anne.
